

Information Management & Governance

Policy Statement

Dumfries and Galloway Constabulary acknowledges the Association of Police Officers of Scotland (ACPOS) guidance on the management of Police information as well as its legal requirements regarding information management and governance and is committed to providing the best possible service to its communities through reliable information at the point of need, where individuals understand the importance of using it correctly, sharing it lawfully and protecting it from improper use.

Version Number: 1.0
Date Created 12 January 2009